to the selection of candidates to the legislature over the signiture of "W. P."

Both Mr. McNell and Mr. Simpson have served in the legislature—the latter gentleman has served two terms, while the former has served but one. Both are eminently popular with their party. Mr. McNell is possessed of ample means and abstemious habits. The former will ensure large addition to campaiga funds, while the latter will commend him to all who are frugally inclined and ensure economical legislation so far as ke, at least, is concerned.

Last, but not least, our genial friend and fellow Democrat, Col. P. F. Though he may not possess such ample worldly means as many a less worthy man, he is one of nature's true noblemen—a horny handed son of toil.

"No man can look further into the clouds and read more of the destiny of his party. He is the same gentleman who so sagely put the rider on the stone bridge ordinance. SETTLED AT LAST.—As will be noticed elsewhere in the regular court proceedings, the legal trouble between the editor of The Kicker and Professor McCall has at tast been settled and an amicable understanding strived at. The professor came here about two years ago, and being in hard luck borrowed our only Sunday shirt and 50 cents in cash, and later on refused to either return the same or recognize our claim. We posted him as a dead beat, and he sued us for $50,000 two proved him a bigamist and he fired two shots at us in front of the postolice. We advised lynching, and he was laid up a month in the attempt to horsewhip us. The professor instituted no less than five suits against us, and on several different occasions planned our assassination.

Lay before yesterday, while the professor was waiting for us with a shotgun at the postoffice, he was run over in a stampede of mules. We were the first to reach him and render aid.
